Why studying architecture? The architecture is one of the most influenced professions these days. The architecture reflects the society and its way towards developing meaning that the architects are required to answer to the needs and values of each part of the Community. In the future, we should insure architects who are able to challenge the increase of people and societies's requirements in humanism of inhabited life, economic and social development.

Architecture – Life ability The architecture is a required profession for the reason that it is related to many issues of modern societies. It means that an architect should learn many skills even to cross traditional borders between art and science. In this sense, the architectonic education is larger which is provided to make sure of advancing that profession which has a big influence on person's life.

About Faculty of Architecture – FAUPz FA is a part of Uni-Pz after the beginning of its academic work. It was founded in accordance with a necessity of such an institution for Prizren city, at the same time; it is a city with the most diverse architecture which dates since old times. The academic staff is qualified and qualitative bringing huge amounts of knowledge and expertise in the teaching rooms. Programs which are being applied enable development and innovation teaching in students's subject. This staff also provides students with advices during their study period, transitional services which consist of extra assistance during the realization of study obligations. Faculty of Architecture organizes events with foreign lecturers who give a huge contribution on the discipline of architecture. At the Faculty of Architecture, students and teachers have turned the students's work exposition into the traditional one. In addition, there is also a special section of this department in the library of Unit-Pz which contains recent book editions for the architecture department. From the very beginning of its activity, this faculty provides study programs in accordance with Bologna Declaration by applying 3+2 program. First three elementary years provides students with Bachelor, whereas the other two years are advanced Master studies. If you join the FAUPz, you as a student or a visitor will be provided a comfortable University environment. Future students Surely, the career selection of an architect does not mean reduction of your choices. The ability that architects posses is important in any aspect which has to do with the environment construction beginning from the new buildings to conservation of the old ones. The work field that architects cover is so diverted that any work description that architects do can sound that they are doing different jobs. One common thing in architectonic is that it has to do with the humans.
